

Label the diagram of the flower. Mark with an * the structures that produce the gametes (sex cells).

Name the gametes found in flowering plants.

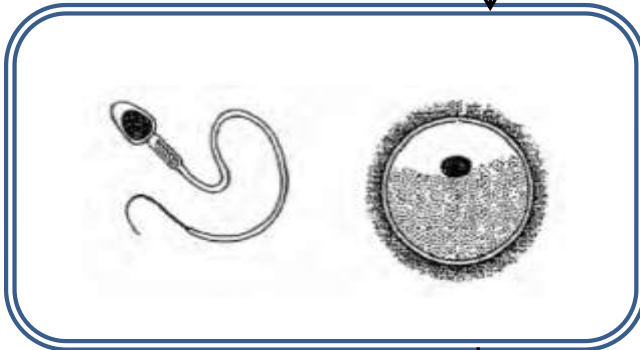

Define the term fertilisation. Include as much detail as possible.

Name the diploid cell, formed as a result of fertilisation.

Reproduction

Label the diagrams of the female and male reproductive systems. Mark with an * the structures that produce the gametes (sex cells).

Name the gametes (sex cells) below and label their basic structures.

Gametes are haploid. Give a description of the term haploid.

